21 FAVORITE CHICKEN RECIPES

Chicken is a versatile, economical and flavorful option that any Paleo person can appreciate. No other meat can match it for value or versatility; nearly every culture in the world prepares chicken.

As a result of this, the demand for chicken is exceedingly high, and the suppliers have had to cut some corners to continue meeting it. Chickens these days are kept immobilized in cages, fed with hormones that grow their breast muscles wildly out of proportion, and treated with so many chemicals it's hard to know where the chicken ends and the additives begin. All of which makes it a bit tough for Paleo people.

Now it's time for Paleo people to take back our chicken! Luckily, as public awareness of food production grows, organic free-range chicken is becoming the norm. You pay a little more, but the benefits to your health will be apparent almost immediately. So long as you're making smart choices, chicken is bound to be a large and enjoyable part of your Paleo lifestyle.

In this super tasty Happy Cook collection we bring together 21 of our all time favorite Paleo Chicken dishes for your enjoyment.

21 FAVORITE PORK RECIPES

Pork is a treasured addition to any Paleo person's routine. No meat can match it for flavor. The pig gives us a rich variety of tastes and textures that no other animal can; from lean pork chops, to crisp bacon, to melt-in-your-mouth tenderloin. Learning how to use it all in a healthy, natural, Paleo way will liven up your diet and keep your tummy satisfied!

Chances are if you're reading this book, you're a pork lover, and you're looking for a way to bring your favorite pork dishes into your Paleo plan.
