Erin Doyle can't stand manwhores, and she particularly can't stand Brendan Langstrom—the guy who avoids relationships like the plague and never sleeps with the same girl twice. She and Brendan have waged a war of mutual disdain for years, but when Brendan picks up the pieces after her world unravels, they'll be forced to admit that beneath their dislike is something else entirely—something they're not supposed to feel.

Because Brendan isn't just her nemesis—he's also her fiancé's best friend.
